LOCATION

Steel Workers Auditorium

8437 Sierra Ave Fontana, CA 92335

From CA-10 Freeway take the Sierra Ave exit, and head north. The auditorium will be on the right.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will provide the most current trends in criminal indicators, hidden compartments and narcotics trafficking.

This is another very rare class where we are able to bring an expert who is actually working the highway and filing cases to present training and current trends in this field. Build your expertise and more importantly your officer safety on traffic stops.

This course is designed to help officers:

Topics will include:

- Criminal Indicators
- Commercial Vehicles
- Traffic Stops
- Wall Investigations
- Hidden Compartments
- Various Statutes Relating to Narcotics Trafficking
- List and Analyze Pertinent Case Law Decisions
- Current Trends of Narcotics Trafficking

INSTRUCTOR

Sergeant Andrew Lindholm of the California Highway Patrol is an expert in commercial vehicle enforcement, narcotics trafficking and K-9 training and deployment issues. He is currently assigned to the Barstow CHP Area and has taught the subject throughout the country, for various law enforcement professional associations and at the CHP Academy. He brings his current knowledge of the most up to date trends in narcotics trafficking and long experience in commercial vehicle enforcement to present this class which will deliver clear and proven methods and techniques for traffic stops and narcotics cases.
