HUMAN TRAFFICKING INVESTIGATIONS

CNOA and HIDTA are jointly hosting "Human Trafficking Investigations"

Human Trafficking Investigations – This is an 8 hour course designed to introduce this horrific crime "Human Trafficking". Human smuggling will be discussed and how "Mexican Drug Cartels" are now involved in human smuggling which later become Human Trafficking crimes. Also, investigating minor children involved with prostitution is a problem in our communities and will be discussed; Asian Criminal Enterprises and their connection to Human Trafficking and organized prostitution. First Responders will learn how to identify signs of human trafficking, & conduct preliminary investigations. International & Domestic "Human Trafficking" awareness and case study on Human Trafficking Investigations

Instructors:

Mark Nye (retired Westminster Police Department Sergeant), is currently assigned as a Detective with the Orange County Human Trafficking Task Force. He has over 25 years of law enforcement experience and has worked various assignments including the Gang unit as and a Detective and supervisor.
