Training Class Thursday, February 23, 2012 0800-1700 hours OUTLAW MOTORCYCLE GANGS

CNOA and HIDTA are jointly hosting "Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs"

Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs – This course will outline the history of Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs, providing an insight into major groups and their areas of operation. The course will discuss organizational structure and the gang philosophy, security concerns unique to motorcycle gangs and information on patch identification. Current gang activity and involvement in criminal enterprise will be discussed in detail. This class will show the student how to prepare for and what evidence is needed for the prosecution of Outlaw Motorcycle Gang members under PC 186.22. The class is updated regularly to remain current with the ever-changing events in the OMG culture. The course content is relevant to law enforcement in all areas. This unique class is beneficial to all law enforcement officers regardless of assignment, as well as those involved in criminal prosecution. Course Topics:

- Major Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs
- 186.22 Prosecution of OMG Members
- Enforcement Techniques
- The Big Four
- Trends and Updates
